

As our population ages, more Singaporeans will need long-term care. The Ministry of Health is introducing 3 new measures to make long-term care more affordable for all Singaporeans.

1

CareShieldLife from 1 Oct 2020

For as long as you have severe disability

Payout starts at $662/month in 2025 and increases annually until age 67 or when a successful claim is made

Government subsidies to make premiums affordable

No one will lose coverage because of an inability to pay premiums

Premiums can be fully paid by MediSave

MediSave Care from 1 Oct 2020

Cash withdrawal

Up to $200 per month from MediSave for those who have developed severe disability

3 ElderFund from 31 Jan 2020

Assistance for lower-income Singaporeans who have severe disability

Up to $250 per month to help with long-term care needs

For more information, please visit careshieldlife.gov.sg
For any queries, please contact the Healthcare Hotline at 1800-222-3399

As our population ages, more Singaporeans will need long-term care. The Ministry of Health is introducing 3 new measures to make long-term care more affordable for all Singaporeans.

1 CareShieldLife from 1 Oct 2020

Lifetime cash payoutsFor as long as you have severe disability

Payout starts at $662/month in 2025 and increases annually until age 67 or when a successful claim is made

Government subsidies to make premiums affordable No one will lose coverage because of an inability to pay premiums

Premiums can be fully paid by MediSave

NEW

NEW

MediSave Care from 1 Oct 2020

3 ^E

ElderFund from 31 Jan 2020

Cash withdrawal

Up to $200 per month from MediSave for those who have severe disability

Assistance for lower-income Singaporeans who have severe disability

Up to $250 per month to help with long-term care needs

Other existing government schemes and subsidies

